BEGINNING

One word... love;
Three words... I love you!
Why did I start loving you?
Why am I writing this?
Was it destiny? Was it fate?
May our beginnings never end...

Like a drop that starts the rain
Like a spark that starts the fire
My love for you started in vain
Please look forward to the next chapter...

Forever yours, but never mine...

No spark, no fire
No tears, no rain...

My dear... I might regret it
But dear... not in the beginning.

OBSSESSION

Every second,
Every moment,
When I look at you,
A new world unravels in front of me...

Smooth talk, Smooth walk,
When I see you,
I lose track of reality...

I always make up stories,
Make up memories,
Full of expression,
Full of guilt...

I love your smile, your lips, your style,
Your voice, your eyes, your passion...

Why can't I let you go?
I know the answer...
It's an obsession!

COMPANY

Alone in this world I walk,
Lost in a crowd of people,
Wondering if I will ever see you,
Wondering if I will ever meet you...

All alone in the corner of a room,
The moonlight shining over the darkness,
Thoughts of you fill my mind,
Thoughts of you fill my soul...

While looking out the window,
Emptiness covers life,
I need your company,
You need to find me...

All alone I go to sleep,
The air feels so cold,
Thoughts of you fill my heart,
Thoughts of you fill my dreams...

Until a soft whisper wipes away the tears.

DEAR ADAM

I can't utter the words
I can't even write them.
I wish I had more will More faith or courage.

I am scared
of rejection
for the first time.
Though I'm close,
I am scared.

If you're reading this Yes!
It's probably you.
You, the one that's more,
More than I expected,
More than I ever got.

My only friend is this lone bug
Which I do not love
I do not even feel.

Wish we were holding hands...

CHALLENGE

please come now and take this challenge, break the ice that we deserve;
I can't do more than this for you, for me, for us;
let my vision, for the first time, let my wish, for the last time,
come true.

shake this day and see my aim watch my moves and make yours too
let me skip those moments let me love the loner.

the only thing I can do now is to write my dream on a piece of skin, on my hand that trembles waiting and thinking about all the flowers we could touch,
the eyes we could read,
the Mondays we could spend...

but until then, I will be here spending a Saturday night waiting, hoping, crying and smiling, losing faith and trust
as a clock strikes 23:14 and I'm waiting for the Wednesdays.

HALF

Half of us want to live,
share and love,
cry and relive,
learn and thrive,
win and conquer,
those... they want to survive.

The other half of these souls?

Well, they strive today and they have fought and tried and lived, but never won.

Of what is now a secluded world,
nothing remains for us,
for use in life, when needed most.

That is why we fall,
we tear apart souls,
futures, endings.

That is why we rise from ashes burnt twice and we come back, to try again,
to fail,
never again.

Yet, half of me has been torn by the halves around us.
Half of me is burnt by cold fire.

HOME AT LAST

I have sought more than I had.
I have not found yet what I needed, what I wanted.

Hope of a better beginning, of a newer surrounding,
of a safer lighting
-I have.

Rolls of lights,
warm nights, soft pillows
and long minutes of vows while my earnest declaration is that of love.

Let us end it all with a toast and follow Charon into the night, as off we go,
tonight!

PIRATE

You're a pirate.
The thief of my heart,
The thief of my soul.
You ran away;
And now you're sailing on the Far East seas.
Owning that ship won't get you to where you want.
Leaving your memories in a tavern won't make you forget them.

The waves and storms will eventually wash away the traces of your existence.

THE FIRST TIME

It was not my choice to find you,
But I will never forget that day.
The mysterious description of you Holding back the time,
In a still moment
For the first time.
Mesmerizing lights,
Soft whispers,
As if I was living in a beautiful dream,
First impressions
Lead the way to a new life...

DROWNING

Left alone in the darkness,
Surrounded by the absence of light,
He is drowning in his own sorrow.
Tears are rolling down the cheeks
And raindrops are floating in despair
As the cruel wind whispers menacingly.
Sad thoughts have filled his mind.
He doesn't feel special anymore.
He would rather be surrounded by water for eternity.

OPPOSITES

The brightest star in the sky
Attracted to the dry leaf.
It seems like resurrection into a fictional world
Where contrasts appeal to one's mind and heart.

One free and passionate spirit
Next to a bashful and sincere soul.
We're like fire and ice,
Opposites but still the same.

COMPROMISE

Would you compromise for me?
Would you give up your free time?
Would you share your life with me?
I wish I could lean on you for help.
I wish I could receive warm embraces.
I wish I could come home and find peace.

Could you?
Would you?

NIGHT LIGHT

I need you to be my night light.
Lead the way through dark;
Lead the way through life.
I need you to help me when I fall;
I need you to help me through it all.
For better, for worse,
In sickness and in health,
Until death do us part.

With this poem and these words,
Caressly written on the screen,
I choose you.

HELP

Help is what we shout for until that final breath we take.

Energy is what we long for when we need to take some final steps.

Loving may never seem easy to a lost soul that's never found.

Peter saw that love in a city of sparks!

FANTASY

Fantasy is my world.
Dragons flying high in the sky,
Unicorns accompanying them,
Sparkles instead of rain,
Rainbows in never before seen colors,
Leprechauns greener than grass,
Elves protecting forests,
Wizards and witches fighting for the supreme power,
Knights in shining armour saving princesses,
Kings and queens living happily ever after,
Fairies sharing their wings with humans,
Ghosts scaring away giants,
Mermaids walking on the ground,
An earth in the shape of a heart.

YOU are my world.

TIME TRAVEL

Let me turn back the time
And do it all again.
Let me jot down nice words,
Better than I did back then.

Let me take back half of what I said
And give you the courage to try,
Give you the push you need
And the words you want.

Let's forget and start again...

OUT OF THE BLUE

Into the blue I ran Out of the blue I found... You.

Blurred lines lead the way
Spontaneous mistakes Marking my deeds
I wish to find the color... You.

Though, why are you blue?

MASKED

You've been hiding your thoughts;
You've been hiding your actions.
Closed in your own world;
Creating a perfect image.
Your feelings can't be heard,
Your wishes can't come true.
The ambition is gone,
The faith is gone.

Nobody believes what you're saying now.
It's all masked.
It's all been left behind,
In an unmasked time- back then.

FORGET

I try to forget something that never started,
Try to forget moments which were never real,
Habits which could not be stopped,
Lost chances which never were,
Pride and prejudice
Along days of longing,
A desire of triumph.
The absence now brings sorrow
Misjudged, blinded, collapsed.

Never again
the ones we once were.

I cease to forget...

EMBRACE

Stuck in this tight embrace
Of loss, of fear.

From here on I do not hope
I do not wish I wait
I pray
I lose.

Stuck without an embrace,
I do not hope
I miss
I need
I fear.

BULL

Should I wait a thousand years
I will.

Just me and these crickets
With night's sun oblivious of us.

Say we're strong,
Say we're bulls
Attacked, mishandled
Or not known
For we may fall.

Here we are many
All of us bulls.

COLORED

Colored I wish to see.
If only I could have a rainbow
Forever close to earth.
If only I had colored Chalk to draw a path,
I would remove the black
The white, the greys.

I'll take the blue, the green
The red and oranges.

FAMILY

Family... I do not seek For I have lost all.
Fighting through anguish,
Standing straight, tall,
Moving through the walls, Surviving.

Family...
I will find.

MEMORIES

I remember what others don't I relive.

I want a different past
I am grateful.

I sure wish you were Here, now, forever Same old.

Hopes of a new start.

Days pass quickly,
Yet they stagger.

See you ad infinitum.

FORTUNATE

We are not fortunate to be brutal,
to be lost and lonely,
to barely survive,
but we are fortunate to live,
to laugh and cry,
to run and fall,
to go back and apologise and we will forever be the luckiest as we will never regret those luckless moments.

WHERE NO MAN HAS GONE BEFORE

Where no man has ever gone before;
That's where I want to go.
Deep into your soul;
That's where I want to be.
As a beautiful everlasting memory;
That's how I want to be remembered.
Forever your only one;
That's what I want to be.

SKELETONS IN THE CLOSET

Open a door, Open two,
None will lead the way to shelter.
Locked in a closet you will be
If you do not find your way,
For as long as I can see.

Like skeletons laying
An empty soul is waiting.

GROWING UP

I've been growing up;
I've come a long way.

It's been hard;

I'm not done.

I'm stronger now.

Don't threaten me;

I'm still a young soul.

As little as I was,
Time made that different.

I now rule the world,

Even if only in my own mind;

I tear to pieces those who stand in my way

And I respect those dear to my heart

Because I was born to do so.

Even if a thousand years will pass,

I will stay the same.

Chin up, raised high,

Looking at the changing sky

Through rain and snow

While wind blows it all

Until the end will come.

CREATIVE VISUALIZATION

Imagine this:

A piece of paper.

A used pen.

Fresh air.

Peace in the air.

Birds singing thrilling melodies.

Clouds disappearing.

Sparkles falling from the sky.

Sunshine appearing.

Rainbows covering the sky.

Cookies' smell.

Warm milk.

Pine trees' smell.

Warm blanket.

Add an old idea

And a new one.

Find it within you.

Fireworks later, at night.

REJECTION

She received rejection.
The world neglected her;
She was deeply hurt.
Her love didn't care;
She was heartbroken.

Now, as time is running out,
She lost her optimism.
Her surroundings became dark;
She is in fact not alive.
Everything is over.

Back then she thought she could win;
She thought she was perfect.
But with no light ahead
And no one to help her,
She ended up in the corner.

LOST

If you were to come back and apologize,
I would give you that fifth chance.
I would make you happy, give you all that you want and more than you need.

I don't know how to pick myself up,
nor how to reach you again, but I'll try tomorrow to bring a smile to your face and into your empty home.

You blocked me.
You just lost me.
However...
I'm sorry!
Please forgive me!
Do not forget me!

LOCKED

I was locked out of your life without wanting to be, without allowing you.

If you were to come back and turn around,
I would try again.

We would forget,
we would laugh
and cry as we go on.

We would remember nothing but what we put into our world.

DREAMS

At first, I had many dreams:
Of flying, of shining,
Of smiling and laughing.
I wanted to bring peace;
I wanted to bring love;
And make my voice heard.
But nobody listened,
Nobody cared.
Everyone laughed,
Threw me aside,
And buried any memory of me.

Now, I just want to be happy.

PEARLY GATES

Standing here, I wish you hear.
I wish you notice.
I wish you need.
Dear, it may never begin,
Yet, please, do try To find a way,
A way to right.

Soon I will not be,
I will still need,
I will still breathe.
Aid in all you do
I try to give.
Oblivious of all existence
I hope you do not remain.

Standing here, I wish for you to come.
For so far is the home,
So long is the road
And closed is the door...

A gate of white;
A verse of light;
A moment of calm.

ANGER

Threatening human nature brought him here.
It's normal to experience anger.
He's been told to do things most couldn't do.
He's been hit with cruelty for no reason.
He's received words no one should.
He's suffered without telling anyone.
He closed himself in his own world.
But he can't take it anymore;
Now, even his own reflection angers him.
He wants to take action.
He starts taking revenge.
He finds no improvement.
Through time,
He still feels the pain.
He is still hurt.
He's waiting for his saviour.

HERO

You're my hero.

The one who took me out of the darkness,
The one who grabbed me before I fell.

I seek protection, I seek attention,
I seek truth and soul at once.

Now that we arrived here

We are alive, my dear.

As waves crash around us

We are still walking;

Death loves me, but avoids me.

What do we have to give

To get what we want?

Do we have to take

Somebody's last wish?

The wind throws fire;

They came from the west.

I can't find you.

SEA GLASS

There are two types of sea glass.
They are hard to find;
Patience is necessary.
I'm holding one.
Perfect on the outside,
Shattered on the inside.
Then there is the other unlucky one.
A polished interior
With scratched appearance,
Laying all alone in the sand Until someone decides to pick it
And save it from burning.

As pretty as it is,
Inside or outside,
In the end,
It still disappears.

SKYLINE

As the skyline gets darker
And the ground grows colder,
I shall be the one to remind you
Of city lights, of rain,
Of people, of cars,
Of clocks that tick
And of wonders that might never be again.
I shall be your final reminder
Of how much we got,
How little we offered,
Look at how many we are!

Now that it's too late I can confess
I had hoped to shake your hand,
I was mistaken, blinded by your smile.
You touched us with words
And you missed that trip
Which led back to us,
Back to where you taught us,
Where none of us want to utter good-bye.

We never got to walk in beauty
Nor to give our last embrace
Oh, the day that comes tomorrow
Please, let me say my final thanks!
You will never be replaced.

WELCOME

welcome into my life
I have been expecting you
I have been wanting you I need you more now as I have you thank you for coming thank you for staying thanks for never leaving and thousands of thanks for never ever looking back read my words and mark my wishes take the best leave out all the rest stay with me once again
as we hold on to this moment forever as I will never ever lose you again

you were here from way back before you were here to stay hope you will remain hope you know that I want to welcome you back into my life

UNREAL

as unreal as we are I want you to become my unreal love my eternal soul my strong pillar through my endless nights and we will talk and we will laugh and we will cry and we will jump and we will scream and shout like no tomorrow will ever come like no past was ever there like no present can ever break and I and you and we will live that unreal but so believable present endlessly
forever
over and over again
forever

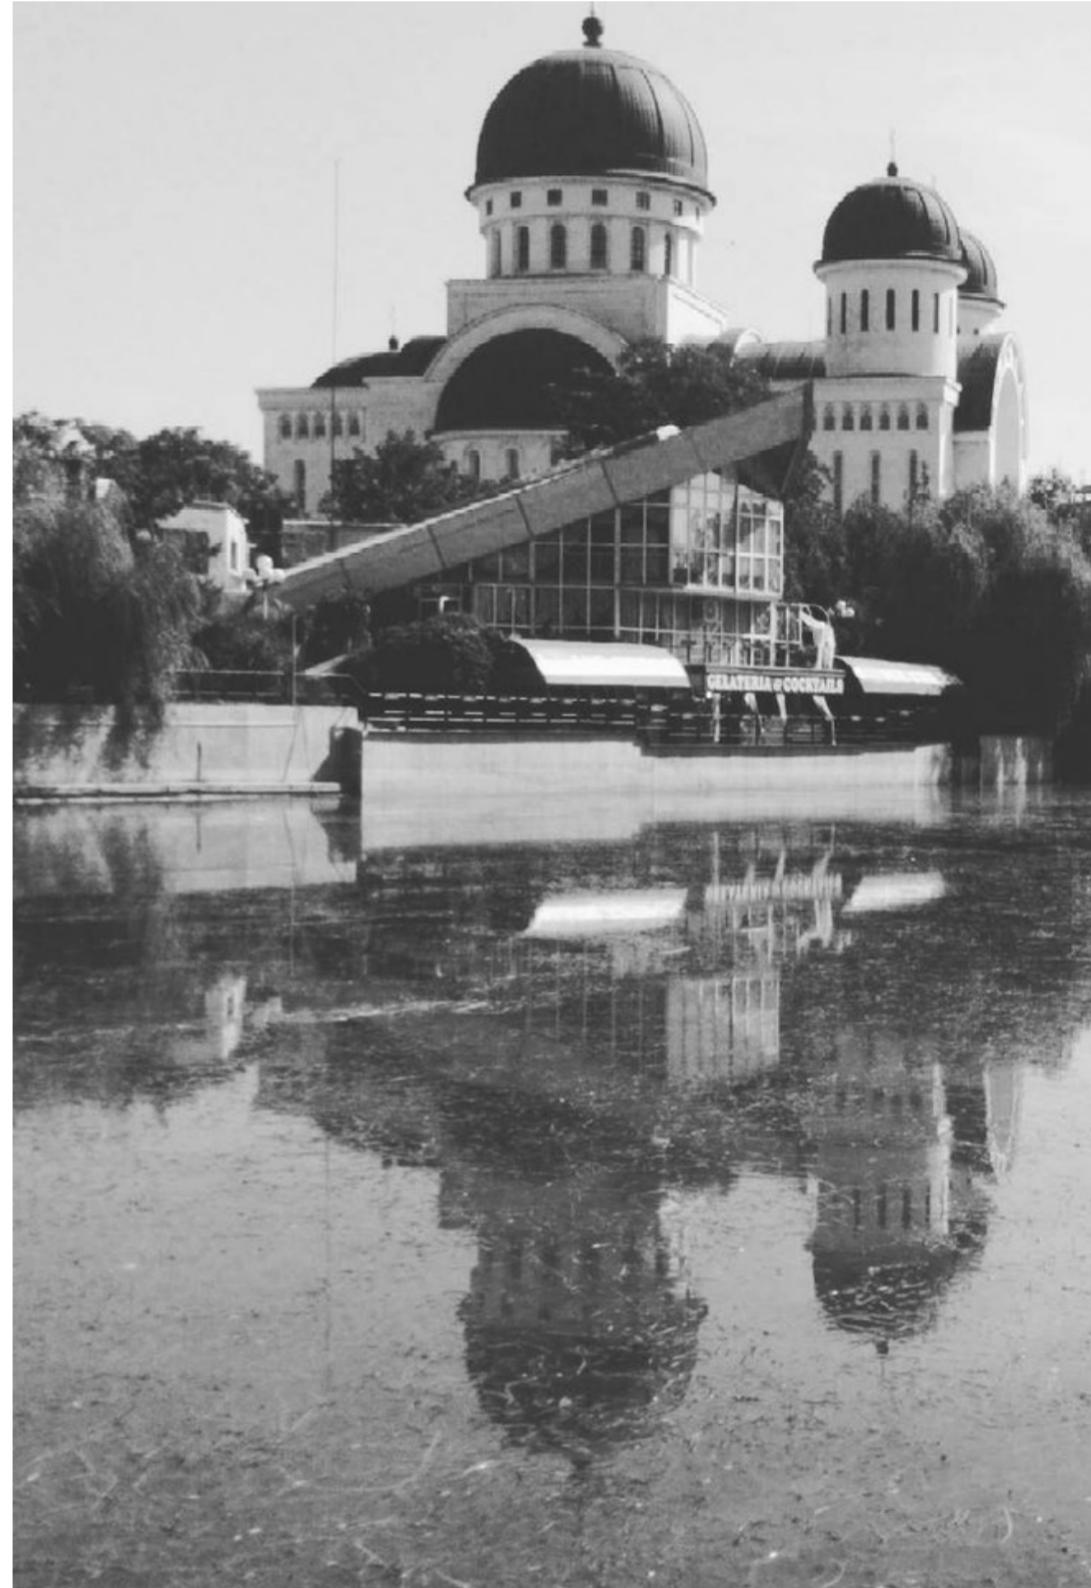

and we will be happy

FORGIVE ME

forgive me for being late as I will forgive you for being slow revel in this chance we got to be finally to say finally that we are together

ask for my forgiveness whenever wherever I will
as long as it's for the past for back then when I was not with you when you were not with me when we wandered the streets alone without looking at each other without holding hands without smiling to each other stupid things we'll never do ever again

FORGIVENESS

If we all gave a little forgiveness,
What would be of us?
If we tried to ask and apologise,
Would it still be us?
Would we still be like this?
Would it matter again?
Would we cross it all out?
Or...

Take this last walk,
This last word,
For this last time.
Break the silence,
Never heard,
Never forgiven,
As we once were.

Free writing's on the wall
As I rub this out
For the first time.

For the first time
I try to stop,
I come back,
I wonder,
Why do I wonder?

Why do my hands shake Whenever I meet you?
Why do I stutter
Like a child?
Why do I stumble
As I get lost
In your eyes.

Why do we have to keep meeting?
Why do I have to fake it?
Why can't you
Be you for good?
At least now
If never again.

PEACE

Let's be at peace with what we've done.
Grudges, lies, cries, screams and shouts, nights and stars,
Colours on shirts, scratches on photos, galleries of corpses,
Empty halls, desperate calls, wonders, questions and smiles,
Renewals, reincarnation, fire and ice, drops of blue blood,
Lonely birds, lost tourists, carriages, misunderstandings,
Laughs and grins, walks, misses, losses, shots and pulls,
Views of rivers, drowning in lakes, swans and peacocks,
Padlocks and keys, bridges in Paris, western hillsides,
Clouds of pink cotton, drinks of serotonin, chemicals,
Flashlights, neon lights, dirty streets, washed ink,
Crayons breaking, pages flying, spilled ink, rings,
Happy bananas, smileys, crosses, drunk seamen,
Penguins and seals, football, hockey pucks,
Cyclists downhill, games, black bikes,
Bug bites, purple shirts, garbage dumps,
Unlisted accounts, lifeless trains, springs,
Funeral cakes, baked goods, lands and spots,
Conversations, ignored leaflets, mails and posts,
Stamps of Martinique, islands under the Sun, wine, Steps, pushes, bold moves, green leaves, dark trees,
Unaccomplished travels, sent letters, cardboard boxes,
Endless lines, neverending words, caves behind the waterfalls, Rainbows, luckless leprechauns, fests and fairs, fake snowflakes,
And we're done and bored.

Let us make peace now.
I'll keep imagining that.
Let's live a little.

CITY LIGHTS

the city lights watch over the dark alleys tonight those poles guide our way home we keep walking alone here's the warm path back take this road and don't look back smile as you keep going drop the ashes carry the hopes fight the darkness kill it in a fight

those lights in this city they color what is numb let's hope we meet again this is the city of the lights

THE MAP

I would draw a map of that road.
I would place landmarks
Where we began and where we are now.
We would get lost from the first encounter.
Hopefully, we would meet again.
Like a bad habit,
We are still looking for treasures.
I have studied every map.
There is no path back.
We lost our way anyway.

Who needs a map?
Why need a map?

UNCONSCIOUS

days that turn into nights nights which refuse to pass days I'll never get back moments I will have missed unconscious I will wait as no other way will make me stop missing missing you who never came

I shall keep my peace
I shall keep my love
forever
as I will never cease to wait and wait
and wait...

HOLDING HANDS

I want pictures, holding hands
I want flowers holding hands
I want paintings of walls,
Sofas, trills and frills Tassels
White china Pink cashmere
Pale satin Fake jewels.

I'll keep counting the days
And visiting
Over and over again.

Let flowers hold hands,
Motivate those hands!

Let us hold hands now...

ASSASSIN

Welcome back into my life,

My dear assassin,

My murderer,

My love.

Wish me better,

Wish me best.

Stay well and loved,

Close and good,

High and tall.

Take care

Never to be taken Away again.

Please stay forever now!

Kill me again

And again

Until we both die

Later,

Just like we will

Forever,

My dear friend.

HOUDINI

do your magic do it right erase the pain erase the wait be here be now not there not then with me with us for me
for you stop being my illusion become real for once

FREEDOM

You know those?
Those were the days.
Those were the days when we smiled,
When we laughed.
Those were the moments,
Moments when I could breathe you
From far away,
Yet more miles closer
As you never came.
Back then,
When I could feed off you,
When I could have you.
When you gave me your best,
When you gave me my smiles and my tears,
My days and my nights,
When you gave me life,
The life I needed.
You were the one I wanted.
Please, be again.

I could only run there because you did.

I could only live because you lived.

I could only try and I will try again.

I am stuck.

You are my end.

You were my beginning.

I am not yours,

But I will be

Like you are always

Mine to breathe.

Let's not get lost in time.

Please, remember the past

Today, as I give you back

Your freedom...

Just be...

Live on and farewell

Until another morning comes

When you won't let go

As I did once

In a summer of love.

GOLDEN DAYS

I am now trying to replace you
I am trying to see why you left the truth is I never understood you you never understood me if I were to go back to beginning
I would tell you I loved you I would make you smile and make you cry
I would make you run to me and back and forth
I could do it if I had a second chance and I would you would stay forever
we would make it work

I don't even know why you left those were the golden days please bring them back

how did we get here in the first place?

STARTING OVER

starting over
I will never want
I will want you to be my forever to never go to never end us once we start once we will meet

we will be
I am sure

REVENGE

No

I'm not going to take revenge
I'll show you how you failed how you missed what was great I'll make you come back again only so that we can both crumble together ad infinitum

you made me hate you you made me see you as I saw the others like poor pieces of
...

UNREAL

I don't want to open my eyes, Afraid that I will not be able To see your face again,
Afraid that it's unreal.
It was a blessing in disguise
To be able to see you,
To be able to have What I never had.
I will always wander back.
Let me forever remember you
As I wanted you to be,
As you were only for me.
Let me have these pictures,
In my mind,
My first love, Always.

I don't want the memory of the good you to fade away...

TWINS

make me bleed from your love through my smiles via your hugs
as I get lost and lost
and lost in your soul with our hands intertwined as we get lost and lost
and lost in our smiles and in our eyes for many miles
as we become twins forever

WAR

This war is with myself.
Do not take part.
Stay away or just stay.
Don't let me fight.
Please, lose this fight!

Break the lines
Break the frontiers
Be my joy
Become my habit Hold my hand

Stay a while.
Shine a mile.
Be a part of my war.
Let's win this together
Once more.

Let's trust again...

CROCODILE

today
I am inspired more than ever before all because because I want to end this as I wish for you to come faster if I do end this which I soon will as I'm rocking this Crocodile headline to make it fun to make it worthwhile to make this challenge stop as I will never cease to wait for my man with that crocodile on his stained shirt...

OLYMPIAN

gosh
how I wanted an olympian more than anything to become my all to become my everything to hold and cherish to trust and conquer to spend my days with and suffer hours without but now all I want and all I will ever want is you you who is now my olympian who is now my all who is now my everything and more...
gosh
you are my olympian, dude!

STILL ME

Still me
Still no you Still here
Still not there
Can I maybe just Talk to you like this
If I know no other way
If I take no other chance?
Can I maybe just
Make this ruthless time pass quicker
So I won't have to go through this
So that I maybe
Don't have to wait another day
So I don't have to go on Without you another second?

When will I stop
Sending letters to you?
Please,
Write back...

CHECKING IN

Checking in once again
as I cannot distract myself from you who is not here who was never here
the you whom I'm not sure if I'll meet
ever or ever again no matter what no matter how for better days for less time we have had and will have forever
endlessly

yours only yours.

WOUNDED

I am weak
And I'm abused.
I can't nor talk,
Nor be patient
As I wait for some peace
As I give myself some time
To find some understanding
As I am misunderstood
And never understood.
Trying to make myself heard Without speaking Without saying a word
I'm hopeless
But I do love
And I would love
To love
A hopeless mind.
That's all there's left
And I am left wounded
And I am left torn
And I am left weak
As I'm weak
Over and over again...

How should I?
How should I wait?
How should I know where to go?
How should I know where to stand?
How could I... we meet maybe Again one day?
Start for once Start anew Never end
What never began
How could I know where I stand?
How could we make it last?
Where would we go
If we had the chance?
How would we live
If we could share this day?
All that I want?
Yeah,
Sharing this day,
These moments,
Our future.

MUSIC

life is music
whatever for me
I guess life is you life is us life is being wherever we are however we are whenever we want with music or without dancing or not laughing or... yeah
I need laughing
I need music
I need dancing
I need us and more so I need you

FEATHERS

War is primitive.
End of story.
Stop plucking feathers.
Take a chance,
show love,
stop hesitating,
we only live for today,
we only love now.

We won't get to see tomorrow, we will never get a second chance to hug, to kiss, to run, please, take my hand!

I am trying to change life,
to change the world,
for better,
never worse.

Don't run now, look back at what we could be.
For once,
see the future,
our future.

Look, the feathers,
they are flying...
Don't stop like us!
Let's be like feathers!
Let us fly freely,
let us live

UNDERAGE

I feel underage when I'm with you nobody heals like you do nobody sewed my heart's pieces like you did I still long for your messages
I still want your attention
I need you

I couldn't find a better soul
I haven't replaced you yet
I don't want to forget you
I want you to be mine in my memories
forever

please return and stay this time

I know you like what you do
I hope it was worth it
I wish you the best although you're not next to me
I wish you happiness even if not with me please find what you need next to that someone who can give you more than you couldn't see that I would give you somewhere

I still wish for you to return even if many years later

DARING

will you come if I write these?
or if I never end my verse?
will you stop and drop whatever you're doing just to come?
will I be better than you had expecte?
will you be my forever only one?
will you please be that one?
am I a bit too daring for wanting you to come earlier for wanting you to stay for telling you all this now am I?

am I yours?

please do stop me from this rush

TRAPPED

untrap me as I am trapped in this forever never-ending trap I've put myself in all while waiting as I wait and I wait until I will never ever cease to wait
for you while I hope that you do so too as I refuse to end my verses and my words and my poems that do not need any rhyme to get to you to make me get to you love always and cherish this verse as I will never ever cease to write it

BREATHE

I am still waiting waiting where we never met but where we will where we will be where we will touch as we will live
an endless moment in our forever
as we will live in a never-ending state of hopeless hopeless love but until then my dear
dear soul who's running
I will continue to breathe hopefully...

EXTINCT

... and then men love the wrong persons, and we wait, and we wonder why, why we can't be those wrong persons. We wonder why we wait. We wonder why they love... and then they love other wrong persons, and they lose their trust as we lose ours... and then we can't love anymore, and we are doing this over and over again until we get lost in our own loneliness, and then, yet again, we start to love those who love other persons, and, at the same time, other persons love us, but we love others, and we hate to love others, but we can't love what's right, and we can't have what we need. We want what we can't have. We have what we hate. We hate that we love. Love is extinct. We are going extinct. We are dying out to please those we love, but we live to find the ones who will fight with us for us... and, then again, we love to love, and we hate to leave once we love love... and, then again, we begin our search. We re-start our lives, and we get lost in the search as we wander aimlessly through life. We don't give up. We cry. We stop. We fall, but we crawl back to find that love that's gone extinct.

OVERALL

Do you remember how I would watch over you?
Or do you not know yet?
Have you ever known anything?
Have you ever known everything?
I still do that.
Nothing has changed.
Nothing is left.
I am left.
I hope to change.
I happen to change.
I happen to know.
Do you know how much I still cherish you?

Let's watch airplanes in the evening!
Please, be my saviour once again!
Stay this time,
And kill me over and over again.
Our never-was turned into never-weres.
It doesn't always work in the right way.
It doesn't always have to happen.
We shouldn't have met.

I don't regret it.
Overall, I like you.

HEAD OVER HEELS

head over heels we fall but why do we wall
why can't we rise
why can't we raise each other why don't we fall for us let's bow to this moment let's hope one more time let's start the day anew and start our lives again with new people new moments new beginnings and with no endings or no remorse
in a constant run for what we wish
I do wish to fall like this

VOLCANIC

volcanic we are as we erupt
as we grow apart to run away from something something that could have been and that will be once we tame our volcanoes and we throw our anger away into a shadow where no love can be nurtured
as we raise our love in a world with just 2...

TWENTY-FOUR HOURS

24 hours I'll be waiting for your messages,
for your smiles,
for you,
but they all fail to come,
they cease to exist,
I cease to wait.

as the clock strikes the twelfth hour, we plan to meet
and we will never forget what we once had and what we cherished before the end of our rational selves.

COUNTRY

this my country
this is how I live
I want this to be yours if not then at least give me your country what you have what you treasure share your all with me and I will share my all with you

DUSK

Here I sit at dusk
With nothing but air around me.
This fresh air calms my soul;
This fresh air is all I have.

There you are at night.
The sky is dark;
The soft lights that I have are all gone.
I can't find you.

As the sun settles
Only shadows are left behind.
It's the beginning of darkness,
But don't worry,
 There's a dawn.

ABANDONED SHIP

Abandoned ships cross the horizon;
We're waiting for the last tide.
Those who left never come back,
Yet, we try to stay here
And wait another day.

Wars have striken our lands,
Have left us empty on the shores.
Our last survivors are our heroes,
Wounded and broken,
Torn and lost.

A captain debarks his ship.
He throws his anchor, his guns,
And, as he tries to touch the sands,
He gives his last breath.
To us it's just another day.

TREASURE MAP

I'm still looking for that treasure map you hid from me and I'm trying so hard to meet you, but it's difficult for me to reach you when you are hiding under that shell and I find it painful to think that the crucial moment when you chose to leave left nothing more than a scar on your hand and a mark on my world.

Yes, you are my treasure, yet one I could not cherish when I had it.
You are that type of fresh air
we all need in the morning, but we fail to get.

WHAT IF YOU CAME BACK

What if you came back?
What if you had another chance?
What if I gave you endless opportunities?
What if tomorrow was not like today?
What if you made that change?
What if we were apart no more?
What if I said I needed you?
What if you needed me?
What if we ran away?
What if we had a chance?

Let's do it all over again!
Let's meet again!
Let's love again!
Let's just be us!
Let us never end!

GLOBAL

Love
This global feeling...

This is why we live our long lives
So we make sure to meet each other
So that we make mistakes
As we live alone
As we walk
As we hold hands
And we let go
To hold other hands
And to let go again
Until we hold tight Onto a soul.

ALL THE LITTLE THINGS

Of all the things I want to say to you:

Thank you for staying,
for being the only one who understood,
who didn't complain,
who never ran away,
who returned.

Thank you for being here, now!
I'm sorry I couldn't have you before,
near me, when I needed you,
when I wanted you to see me at my best.
I'm sorry I wasn't there for you back then,
when you needed me,

when you wanted me to hold your hand,
to tell you words of hope and love.

I'm sorry for talking to others,
for believing I liked them,
for getting angry,
for making you sad,
for crying;
I was a fool.
Once again,
I apologise.

I thank you for wanting me,
for accepting me,
for wanting to be with me,
for being my friend,
for making me feel beautiful, confident,
loved,
needed, secure,
treasured, happy again
as I never was.

Thank you for the tender caresses,
for the forehead kisses,
and tight hugs,
for the long walks,
and fun drives,
for the dinners, breakfasts, and lunches,
for the sweet desserts,
for the flowers and diamonds,
for the letters and gifts,
for the sweet words,
and for the chats I never wish to end.

Thank you for apologising,
for sharing your secrets,
your things and stories,
for making me laugh, cry,
for not laughing,
for making me trust you,
for being faithfull,
for coming back home,
for smiling,
for approving,
for helping,
for saving me,
for trusting me,
for being more than I ever wanted, for giving me more of your free time than you had.
Thank you for existing!
Thank you for being mine!

And...

Above of all,
Thank you for being a beautiful soul!

Breathe. Stay alive!
Thank you for living!
Let's meet over and over again!
Let's fall in love thousands of times!

I love you! Hold my hand!

WHY US

Why did you have to disappear
When I needed you more
Why did you have to die
When I first had you on my mind
Why did we never meet
When we should have Why us
Why always us
Why can't we just be As others are Happily...

I will try to live like this for your sake as I'll keep resurrecting you again and again until you will finally appear once again
forever...

ME AGAIN

Hey
It's me again
Still here
Still not there Still waiting
Still not sure where I should be
Were I should go
Were we should go
How we should be Still me
Still me again
Only me
While no sight of you
Is anywhere near near We are still Still far Farther away than we ever where
And ever will be.

Still waiting.

FOR YOU

You've never read my thoughts like I could read yours
You might have never thought about me like I did about you...

I need that love as I need you
for you as I will live to see you as I want you to have someone to be there to be with someone to never be without one so that you can live what I never could before...

Wish we lived the same life and thought the same thought...

FLYING

I never met him,
yet, I loved him,
more than I ever loved a man,
more than I could ever love myself or anyone.

I tried to tell him.
he never understood.

man, you left behind garbage,
anger, curses,
and a shy, broken girl who can only cry, do nothing,
and hope for better love.
understand this!
get yourself back together!

now, I want to be flying,
but maybe I never loved him.
maybe, I never wanted to see him.
maybe, I never loved those talks, those hands I never got to hold.
maybe, I played with him.
or else, HE played me.

I now want to keep that image of him... he, the guy who gave me attention,
whom I could trust,
the guy who cared,
who was curious when I held on,
the boy who would take me down and bring me back up again, THAT ONE.
that soul I once cherished, that good guy I once liked and wanted to love more than I ever loved,
over and over again,
forever.

Please, let me move on to the next chapter!

Don't let go!
Never forget me...

here we are at my last message here I am at this small letter
I do not wish to end but I will because I'm selfish and I want to you faster in my life forever because finally I am where no man has ever gone before in this unreal life I'm living with my olympian daringly coming out my trap opening my heart and welcoming you with or without the music as I unconsciously wandered through this adventure through my country and globally where the wounded and the broken are extinct after the war where overall
I found my freedom falling head over heels and hopelessly in love with you and got lost without a map as I see now that I've written a poem more than once as I was utterly desperate for my olympian with whom I'll never ever be alone again with whom I'll find peace through my past's sacrifice while holding hands during our golden days

ENDING

and all the little things I saw flying through my life without ever reaching will now become more than unreal as I am home at last twenty-four hours after or years whatever it takes
I hope I'll be fortunate enough to be patient and not to have abandoned this ship until you out of the blue gave me that one first embrace as I was in so much need of help as you have colored my life and gave me memories that will make me forget any apocalypse as you were perhaps my masked hero as you are now not my fantasy
but my night light the one who could compromise just to wait for me at dusk while I
for the first time
want to be in your company at day at night whenever not in my dreams but in my reality as we start this new beginning while I am writing my last poem kind of because something tells me it's only one of my first...

and remember how this ending is and will be our beginning...

PART 2

HAIKU

THIN ICE

Cold winter; Lost bird
On thin ice.

SMOKE

Autumn air
Filled with dark smoke-Sad people.

TOURIST

Spring blossoms;
The tourist stork
Meets the crane.

ETERNITY

Drops of clear water-Lost and fallen
For eternity.

NEW GROWTH

Flower bud-
New growth
In the spring.

SIX FEET UNDER

The wind blows;
The bird lays Six feet under.

FLASH FLOOD

Flash flood-Near the river Trees fall.

INNOCENT

Innocent petals
Falling on the cold ground-Tears of deep sorrow.

FIGHT OR FLIGHT

Dragonflies fight
Waiting for flight;
Raindrops falling.

VANISHING

Ethereal fog-Vanishing
As the sun rises.

STARS

Sky covered in stars;
I wonder where you are
As time passes by.

OVER THE MOON

Like a cricket
Over the mystic moon
I want to jump.

CRIMINAL

Behind those shadows
The criminal stole the moon.
It left no sunlight.

DESERT

That desert's warmth could kill.
No soul was seen under Sun's rays
And no one could live.

FIRE

Hot shining sun Brings fire Over forests.

DARKNESS

Darkness falls over the hill
Moonlight starts to fade Clouds have covered the wide sky.

OFF-BALANCE

A lost bird on ice
Blowing wind through pine forests-Holds no power now.

OCEAN

Ocean's water;
Waves crashing
In harmony.

MAGIC

The magic of earth
Is seen
Only once in life.

FOG

The fog Hides shadows
At night.

ADVENTURE

After this long wait,
Our adventure begins,
My forever love...

OPEN HEART

Open my heart now
Open yours as well, my dear
Let us be brave now in this world...

SACRIFICE

Gods are preparing.
The sacrificed is waiting.
Don't abandon it!

PARALYZED

The night can fall now.
A crow lies under the sand
Paralyzed, hopeless.

THE END
